

Stomp the Prompt

Open Mic Impromptu
Speech Night

Sponsored by S-Peak Leaders

CCARTS
cottonwood center for the arts

SATURDAY, JANUARY 17

Cottonwood Center for the Arts

427 E Colorado Ave, Colorado Springs
(Free parking across the street on East side)

6-7 PM Education Session (Details Below)

7-8:30 PM Table Topics & Light-hearted story telling

Door prizes for the individual(s)
who bring the most guests!

Cash Bar

Donations never refused!

EDUCATION SESSION

MS. AMY S HAMILTON: "PRESENTATIONS ARE PROJECTS: HOW TO USE PROJECT MANAGEMENT SKILLS TO IMPROVE YOUR PUBLIC SPEAKING."

Here's what you will take away from this workshop

- Organizational skills for your speeches
- Ways to improve your speech planning
- Applying project management techniques to your public speaking goals
- Managing your speech preparation timeline

Bio: Ms. Hamilton is the Deputy Division Chief of Future Cyberspace Operations at NORAD and US Northern Command. She has been a PMP since 2007 and is the Director of Social Media for the Pikes Peak Regional Chapter of the Project Management Institute. She is an award winning Toastmasters who has won at the District Level. She currently teaches Project Management adjunct for Colorado Technical University.

*Members of PMI can earn 1 PDU for attending this event

January Stomp the Prompt is sponsored by: S-Peak Leaders